

British Values Academy

Individual liberty

Democracy

Mutual respect

Tolerance for those of different faiths and beliefs

The rule of law

- Be aware of/monitor changes in behaviour which may indicate change in beliefs.
- Strong pastoral system and safeguarding.
- Taught to support each other and stand up to discrimination.
- Understanding of right and wrong.

- Awareness and tolerance of communities which are different to their own - so prepare for life in modern Britain.
- National Languages Day.
- Golden Code.

- Part of school life so experience it e.g. school council, youth parliament, student surveys, etc...
- Learning for life

- Assemblies.
- PSHE.
- RE.
- Challenging extremists attitudes e.g. anti-bullying on extremist attitudes.
- Stand up to discrimination and to understand this is protect by law.

- Students encouraged to give their views on issues.
- Safeguarding student group.
- Safeguarding procedures.
- Learning for life.
- Encourage students to respect other people (Golden Code), with particular regard to protecting;
 - Disability
 - Race/ethnic identity
 - Religion/belief
 - Gender reassignment
 - Sexual orientation
 - Sex (gender)
 - Age
 - Marriage/civil partnership
 - Being pregnant or having a child
- To understand these characteristics are protect by law

- Part of school life.
- Taught in Learning for life and in other subjects where relevant.
- Student Leadership Team.
- Visits from authorities, e.g. Police, Fire Service, etc...
- Reinforce the importance of the law.